

The business plan of the resident of the free economic zone shall be assessed based on the following standards:

- (1) export policy, destinations and volumes;
- (2) compliance of the plan with the aims of establishing the free economic zone and its operational nature;
- (3) use of technological innovations;
- (4) number of employees and other social actions;
- (5) amount of total investments;
- (6) information on key strategic partners (where appropriate).